

CALENDAR DATES FOR 22/23

Dear parents/carers,

I wrote to you back in September with a list of calendar dates for the school year.

Please find attached a revised list of key dates / events for the remainder of the year. Most events have remained the same, with a few that were recorded as a week commencing or a TBC now full confirmed. There are also now additional events added in.

Please note, there may also be other things including trips and visitors not yet booked in that will be added to this list and our school calendar on the website. This will be updated when events are added, changed or confirmed. You can access the electronic calendar here: <https://astonhallschool.co.uk/our-school/school-calendar/>

Thank you for your continued support.
